GENERAL NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN

Changed his Opinion.

NEW YORK, Aug 4.—General Weaver on his way back from the canvass of Alabama said to the editor of the Wheeling (West Va.) Intelligencer "There has not been an election more worthy of the name in Alabama for years. Their voting is a farce throughout. They openly adopt every corrupt plan to solidify different precincts. He detailed the methods by which frauds were practised. He says democrats openly boast of this infamous business and jeer over the fact that sometimes after all stuffing they have to fix up returns. After the count he adds 'I used to think Tilden was fairly elected, but he was not.'"

Will Remain on the Ticket

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug 4.—Col B J Chambers, candidate for vice president on the greenback ticket, has notified the editor of the Sun that the improved condition of his health justifies him in announcing to the people his intention of remaining on the ticke to the end of the campaign.

The Alabama Farce.

MONTGOMERY Aug 4.—All the reports show an immense democratic vote. The democratic state ticket will have a majority of over 60 000. The greenback independent party was only thoroughly organized in the counties composing the district represented by Congressman Lowe, greenbacker, who has given him a majority two years ago, gives a handsome democratic majority this year. The democrats elect all the judges.

Bonds Purchased.

NEW YORK, Aug 4.—Proposals to sell bonds to the government aggregate $6 898 900. The secretary of the treasury accepted $2,500 000 at 12.36 for sixes of '80, and 104 564 to 104 730 for sixes of '81.

Races Postponed.

The rains here and at Saratoga again make necessary the postponement of the races.

Railroad Accident.

WORCESTER Mass., Aug. 3.—A car loaded with naptha in the eastward bound freight train, jumped the track at Rochdale, on the B & A. Railroad to night, and 14 cars loaded with merchandize, three of which with the naptha were burned, the naptha taking fire when the accident occurred. The road was blockaded for two hours and a new track around the debris had to be built to open the road. The loss will be about $20 000.

Congressional Nomination.

ST. LOUIS, Aug 3.—W. L. Scott was nominated to-day for congress by the democrats of the 14th district.

BARNUM Mass. Aug 4.—Democrats of the fourth congressional district have nominated George W Ladd. The greenbackers have also nominated Ladd.

Salt Manufacture.

BAY CITY, Mich Aug 3.—The report of the state salt inspector shows that for eight months of the season since Dec 1st last the Michigan salt wells produced 1,498 461 barrels, being an increase of 397,438 over the same period last year.

Fire at St. Louis.

ST LOUIS, Aug 3.—The extensive works of the St. Louis Sewer Pipe Company, owned by Isaac L. Downes situated on Austin street between 12th street and Tryon avenue was partially burned to-night loss, $35 000 or $40,000.

Base Ball.

BOSTON Aug 3.—Chicagos, 5; Bostons, 1.

Seriously Injured.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug 4.—During the progress of the fire in the mattress factory on North Second street last evening Elizabeth Oglesby and Emma Barnes leaped from the third story window to the ground, the former sustaining injuries which will probably prove fatal. Miss Barnes escaped with a cut on the head and a few bruises.

Jail Delivery.

NEW YORK, Aug 3.—At Hamstead a party of sixteen broke into the county jail and released all the prisoners. A negro prisoner proceeded to the house of the sheriff and informing him of the escapade, returned to his quarters in the jail.

Desperado Killed.

MONTAGUE, Tex., Aug. 3.—W. W. Taylor, deputy sheriff, attempted to arrest Martin L. Minnot, a notorious desperado of this county. Minnot thrust a pistol to Taylor's face and fired, but missing, Taylor shot him three times, killing Minnot instantly.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Troops for Candahar.

LONDON, Aug. 4.—Gen. Roberts' force for Candahar starts on Sunday. It includes three British infantry regiments and one cavalry.

A new brigade formed in Bengal, which consists of one regiment of British infantry and two regiments of natives has been sent from Bombay to Southern Afghanistan.

Burrows' Officers.

Of 55 officers of Gen Burrows' force 21 are killed or missing 9 wounded and escaped and 12 arrived at Candahar. This leaves 12 unaccounted for and it therefore may be presumed that though nominally attached to Gen Burrows' brigade, they did not accompany him.

Burrows to Rome.

LONDON Aug 4.—The Times commenting on the disaster to Gen Burrows' command, blames that officer and declares that the Bombay Sepoys are inferior to Ghuzis as soldiers.

Retirement of the British.

LONDON, Aug 4.—A Bombay correspondent telegraphs the retirement of the British forces from Cabul which will follow the departure of Gen Roberts with his command for Candahar. It is not considered expedient to prolong the occupation in the face of heavy expenditures and the possibility of fresh complications.

Turkish Barbarity.

CONSTANTINOPLE Aug 4.—An American missionary and his American servant while on the road to relieve the famished population were found with their throats cut near Ismedt.

Peace will be Maintained.

BERLIN Aug 4.—Negotiations between the Russian government and the Chinese embassador have been opened and the Russian press express hopes that peace will be maintained.

Crushing Defeat

PARIS Aug 4.—The defeat of the reactionaries in the elections for the councils generals is crushing. The irreconcilables were also defeated at Lyons, Toulouse, Lille Besancon and other large towns which if not contested. They won a seat at Bourges Gen Chanzy and several other moderates, are supplanted by advanced republicans.

Le Temps says. If the Bonapartists were ignominiously defeated, the carlists were even worse treated. The distinguishing character of the elections was anti-clerical. The attempt to move constituents by representing the religious decrees as an attack on liberty signally failed.

Anarchist Commonists.

One hundred and two anarchist communists arrived from Brest yesterday. One hundred policemen were at the railway station but scarcely 200 persons had assembled to greet the communists. Henri Rochefort was present. Twenty four other communists arrived later in the day.

Gladstone's Condition.

LONDON Aug 4.—Gladstone continues to improve, although still weak.

SOUTH AMERICA.

The Horrors of Unrivalled War.

NEW YORK Aug 4.—A Lima letter says of the taking of Tacna by the Chilean troops that only one street escaped sack. Hundreds of unarmed prisoners were slaughtered in cold blood. Not one wounded ally was found alive on the field the day succeeding the battle. Women and girls of tenderest ages were violated and many killed. The farmers in the vicinity shared the fate of the town. Every day six eight or ten murders are committed while the bodies of the victims are allowed to remain unburied until their removal becomes a necessity. Arica suffered even more severely than Tacna. All the houses are either totally or partially destroyed. Out of 1803 defenders only 600 survived. Those of the 1200 who did not fall in the fight were subsequently massacred in cold blood. It is an authenticated fact that 49 soldiers who had thrown away their arms and taken refuge in the U S commercial agency, over which a flag was flying were taken out and butchered in the street.

GARFIELD'S EASTERN PROGRESS

General Garfield at the Dedication of the Soldiers Monument at Cleveland Ohio —An Impromptu Speech

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN]

CLEVELAND Aug. 3.—The soldiers monument was dedicated to-day at this place, Gen Garfield and party assisting in the ceremonies. In a brief speech General Garfield said that the event had been a mistake made in announcing that he was to make a speech but he could not look upon a great audience in Ashtabula county recognizing so many old faces and old friends without at least saying good bye before he left. If I had time to stay here long enough he continued the influence and presence of this audience and the monument in the square would force a speech from me. Ideas are the only things in this universe that are immortal. Some people think that the soldiers are chiefly renowned for courage. That is one of the chiefest and commonest qualities. We share it with the brutes. The difference between them and us is this. They never hold reunions to celebrate their prowess. They never build monuments over their slain comrades. Why. Because they have no ideas behind their warfare. Our race has ideas, and because ideas are immortal if they be true we build monuments to them. The dead are past our help and past our praise. We can give to them no glory we can give to them no immortality they do not need us, but forever and forever more we need them. The glory that trailed in the clouds behind them after their sun had set falls with a benediction on us who are living and it is to commemorate the immortality of the ideas for which they fought that you assemble today and dedicate your monument that points up toward God who leads them in the glory of the great world beyond."

After expressing the gratification and joy it afforded him to meet his neighbors and constituents, and sharing with them the memories and inspiration the celebration caused General Garfield concluded by introducing General Ben Harrison.

Garfield at Buffalo.

BUFFALO Aug 3.—Gen Garfield received a grand ovation at the hands of the republicans of this city on his arrival this evening. Gen. Garfield at the conclusion of the procession spoke as follows

Fellow Citizens—The spectacle I have witnessed in your city to-night is far greater than any pageantry that can be created by anything except by enthusiasm and ideas and the faith of men embarked in a great and worthy cause. It does not mean any man in the world it means your faith, your hope, your purpose. So far as I in any sense represent them I accept your congratulations with thanks, and I give you all that is best in my mind to reply for your magnificent demonstration. I am passing with through your city and for a few hours stopping not to discuss politics not to make speeches, but I stopped this moment long enough to recognize your great meeting and great greeting, and thank you for it with all my heart.

Prolonged applause followed the general's speech, which was followed by short speeches by Hon Ben Harrison and Messrs McKinley and Conger. At the conclusion of the speeches Gen Garfield appeared on the floor of the hotel and shook hands with those present.

Garfield at Syracuse

SYRACUSE Aug 4.—Five thousand people assembled to welcome Garfield on his arrival here. From the platform Gen Garfield made a brief speech, saying Fellow Citizens—When I was here two years ago you were busy in debating the question whether you could force hard times out of Syracuse with printing presses and flat money, but after deliberation you concluded to work your way out—to walk by the old road on which the guide board stands whereon God wrote "By the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat thy bread." You followed the road about a year longer which brought you out to the high summits of prosperity which shines and smiles all over this great land of ours, and it smiles on the brighter because you deserve it by keeping faith and maintaining the truth of the multiplication table in your financial operations. I congratulate you that the same multiplication table that your believed in two years ago, in the darkness, is true to day when the sunlight of prosperity falls upon you. [Great applause.] I congratulate you that you never went back on it, but believed in it all the time and you are glad to day you stuck to the truth when it was doubted and denied.

Garfield at Rochester.

ROCHESTER N Y, Aug. 4.—Gen. Garfield's train left Buffalo at 6 30 this morning and reached Rochester at 8 30. A large crowd was present at Batavia depot. Lieut Gov. Hoskins, in a short speech, introduced Gen Garfield, who said

Fellow Citizens—I cannot talk much to you this morning but I want to say that I am glad to see that here in Batavia you are early risers. It is early rising that has made us what we are as a people and it is early rising that will carry the November election. Fellow citizens I thank you for your hearty welcome.

Garfield at Utica.

UTICA Aug 4.—A large crowd assembled to welcome Gen Garfield en route to New York, to whom he made a brief speech.

At Rome, where the train stopped a few moments, Gen Garfield said to the citizens, "I don't know where you all come from, the state of New York seems to be on the road all the way."

Enthusiastic Greeting.

ALBANY, Aug 4.—At every station between Utica and Albany where Gen Garfield's train stopped crowds gathered to receive him, and the general was forced to make a brief speech of thanks. At Schenectady the crowd at the depot numbered 3000. The train was received here by a crowd of several thousand. A salute of 21 guns was fired.

Garfield on the Way.

ALBANY, Aug. 4.—Notwithstanding the heavy rain, large crowds assembled at Hudson and Fishkill to witness the arrival of the train bearing Garfield and party. At Poughkeepsie the crowd numbered 4000. At Garrison he republican presidential candidate was introduced to Hamilton Fish and wife Hamilton Fish Jr. At Peekskill another enthusiastic crowd awaited the arrival of the train and demanded a bow and a few words from Garfield.

At His Journey's End

NEW YORK, Aug 4.—The train with Gen. Garfield and party rode into the Grand Central depot over exploding torpedoes, at 7 40 last night. A large number of citizens inside and outside the depot were present and cheered the general enthusiastically on his way from the train to the carriage, the party was driven to the Fifth Avenue hotel. When Garfield arrived at the hotel a crowd assembled outside and loudly demanded Gen Garfield's appearance. As he stepped out on the balcony he was greeted with cheer upon cheer but in reply to loud calls of "speech" he merely said "Fellow citizens, accept my thanks for your congratulations and your presence and then retired to his private room. After dining General Garfield met a committee of the republican central campaign club, and an appointment was made for to-morrow night, when he will receive the entire club with Gen Fremont as its guest. A delegation of colored citizens belonging to a political organization were also received and introduced, after which General Garfield retired, worn out with his journey.

APPEAL FOR AID

The following letter will require no explanation

GARDINER July 30 1889

Hon. D P Thompson—SIR: The citizens of Gardiner have appointed us a committee to lay before the people a statement of the disaster which befell us on the 26th of July and to receive and distribute among the destitute any contributions there may be offered.

The fire which has destroyed about four fifths of the dwellings of this town has left many families without a proper shelter and without the means to rebuild the houses they have lost or to supply their furniture with the necessaries of life. They are therefore obliged to look to more favored localities for some assistance in this their hour of great need. And it is with the hope that you may lay the necessities of this community before your people that we address you.

Remittances should be made by draft on Portland or San Francisco postoffice orders on Empire City or by express care of John Drain. Drain's station and should be addressed to the relief committee.

Committee—Geo H Emerson, Alf W Reed, E H Burchard, Geo S Hinsdale, T. C Reid, W. D McGee secretary.

There are upwards of 100 campers now at Ilwaco.

THE PACIFIC COAST.

CALIFORNIA

The Lost Mathilde

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 4.—The French General Chanzy arrived at this port in ballast 39 days from San Jose de Guatemala. Captain Raymond, her commander, reports that on July 7th in latitude 15° 8 north longitude 119° 2 west he passed a steamer bottom up with foremast standing. He passed it but saw no sign of life. The vessel was a wooden figurehead painted blue, and considered very probable that it was the Mathilde abandoned some months since.

Fumigating

The work of disinfecting Canton has been begun by a corps of seven fumigators accompanied by two police officers, and the work will be carried on systematically.

Schroeder Habeas Corpused

A Trifling Murder.

This afternoon Dennis Hayes a man was shot through the head by Michael Lolan at the corner of Hugh and Webster. The cause of the tragedy was a trifling quarrel over Hayes hitching his horse to Lolan's fence during which the latter struck Hayes called him a scoundrel—of a bad—. Lolan formerly a commission merchant, but reputed of late years to have become intemperate with drink. He was arrested shortly after the shooting.

Murderous Assault and Suicide

James Cahill this afternoon entered the residence of Mrs N Wheeling on Burnside street and fired a pistol shot at Mrs Polk which glanced harmlessly from a bustle in her corset. He then shot himself through the head inflicting a fatal wound. The motive of the trouble is unknown. Cahill is said to be a brother of Ed Cahill, the well known and of unsound mind.

NEVADA.

In Good Ore.

VIRGINIA Aug 4.—The rift north at the 600 from the Union shaft toward the 2500 station of the Sierra Nevada incline is in fine ore. The drift from the incline to the Union has also got good ore in streaks. If the ore continues between the two there will be a fortune left of where none was expected.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

Puget Sound Steamer News.

NEW TACOMA Aug 4.—The steamship Idaho, which arrived at 7 30 A M., leaves for Olympia at 2 P. M. She brings full freight and passenger list for all sound ports. Among the passengers are the first installment of Newell colony, sent by the Brooklyn Cooperative Colonization Association consisting of twelve families of thirty persons. They have a superintendent, treasurer and secretary. They go to Olympia for instructions as to future location, etc. This is the last trip of the Dakota under the British mail contract. She, with her popular commander, Capt Morse, Esq., will continue to make trips to the Sound ports and Victoria, leaving San Francisco the 20th of each month. Charles Nebbs has become agent of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company and Capt Morse continues as the agent for the Pacific Mail Company. This arrangement is hailed with evident satisfaction on the sound where Capt. Morse deservedly a great favorite.

The Chester and Idaho, of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, will alternate trips leaving San Francisco on the 10th and 25th of each month carrying the British mails to Victoria. This secures three trips to the Sound from San Francisco and Tacoma each month.

The Dakota will take down a full freight of barrel material from Puyallup and Steilacoom factories.

Commendable Caution.

PORT TOWNSEND Aug 4.—The barkentine Tam O Shanter, now lying in the bay has on board fifteen tons of giant powder for Navy Yard Westminster, but no vessel being in readiness here to receive it, the captain proceeded to sea to discharge it, but the citizens being anxious about the safety of their town, called on the mayor to prevent the parties from landing it. The mayor went on board of a row along side of the vessel, where it will remain until the Victoria boat arrives on Thursday.

Transferred.

The steamship Dakota arrived this afternoon. Among the passengers was Surgeon Meade who comes to relieve Surgeon J. M Gassaway who is ordered east.

THIRTY-SEVEN DAYS.

The Starving Feat of Dr. Tanner—Nearing the Close—Only Three Days More—His Condition, etc.

[SPECIAL TO OREGONIAN]

NEW YORK Aug 3.—Dr. Tanner read his mail at four o'clock, and over some quite letters had a good laugh. Then he dozed until 6 o'clock, when he vomited a small quantity of matter. Soon after he got up and went to get shaved, four watches following to the barber's shop. After an hour's absence the party returned to the hall, and the doctor said he felt first rate. He looked much stronger than previously. At 7 40 in the evening the doctor had another attack of nausea and vomited a small quantity of frothy liquid, devoid of bile. He passed the time between this and 9 o'clock receiving visitors, all of whom he asked to retire as soon as they got a look at him, and complained bitterly of annoyance at being stared at. Between 8 and 9 o'clock he had an access of spring water and entered into a discussion as to the government of Dr. Tanner. A cable from Paris which Dr Hammond considered bogus. At 9 o'clock he retired for the night. At midnight he was apparently in sound sleep. He consumed about two ounces of a pint of water during 24 hours, then he ate and ran exactly 45 days more to fast.

NEW YORK Aug 4.—At 1 o'clock this morning Dr Tanner was peacefully sleeping wrapped up in blankets on account of the chilliness of the atmosphere following a day's storm. Four medical gentlemen are closely watching the sleeping faster.

In Good Spirits.

NEW YORK Aug 4.—Dr Tanner had a large number of visitors to day. Frank Leslie was one this morning he had an attack of nausea and vomited. This left him and he complained of a bitter wish to vomit. Soon after he drank threedy and ice water and then slept three quarters of an hour. At half-past four he had an attack of vomiting but seemed to feel better. At 9 he got out of bed dressed with more ease and read the morning papers. He drank 4½ ounces of water and slept for fifty minutes. On awakening he remarked that he might have tampered with the fasting test after drinking it. There are more than one what they would do," he said "I'll try for the 'dark' tomorrow." He looked as though he had some heavy beds have been made. Yesterday when he entered on the 38th day of his fasting his condition was about the same. Dr Tanner's features were no more drawn or pinched and he appeared in good spirits promptly.

Visions of Beef Steak

NEW YORK Aug 5.—At 1 30 Dr Tanner had a warm foot bath to relieve a condition of the stomach, and half hour to sleep. He awoke at 7 very irritable, vomited water tinged with bile at 9 of the clock he took an alcoholic vapor bath. Sick headache, rubbed dry and put to bed. He slept and awoke weaker and hot.

The Faster's Stomach

At 4 o'clock Dr Tanner was attacked by violent retching and vomiting and their very weak. He took hot water and became quietly on his cot at 5 o'clock. At 6 Dr Tanner not quite as well as usual after vomiting attack about 10 o'clock. At midnight was quietly sleeping.

A FATAL PLUNGE.

Little Rosa Rankin Falls through Fourth Street Bridge in East Portland and Finds a Watery Grave.

A most shocking accident occurred yesterday forenoon about 10 o'clock at the Fourth street bridge in East Portland resulting in the death, by drowning, of little Rosa Rankin, a daughter of Mr. Guy Rankin. The circumstances of the very sad affair are substantially as follows. Mrs Rankin who resides in Holladay's addition mother of the little victim sent the child to the center of the city to get some milk, giving her a small tin pail. To reach East Portland proper the child had to cross the Fourth street bridge which spans the slough. Rosa was accompanied by a little daughter of Mr Ferguson.

Some time ago the common council of East Portland ordered some repairs to be made to the bridge as it was declared unsafe for travel. The necessary repairs were made and the bridge thrown open to travel. On each side of the bridge is a sidewalk six feet in width for the use of pedestrians. This walkway rests on three stringers. It seems that one of the planks had worked loose a few inches, so that the outer end did not rest on the stringer. As the plank was not nailed down securely when Rosa stepped on the end it flew up and let her slight body slip through. From the bridge to the water the distance is about 45 feet. The water in the slough is about 10 feet deep. Down through the latter aperture the child slipped and took a plunge into the water below. Her little companion who witnessed the thrilling incident was terrified and ran to the nearest house and gave the alarm.

Several persons rushed to the scene to rescue the child, but she had disappeared from sight. Grappling hooks were procured and in the course of half an hour the lifeless body of Rosa was fished out. An examination of the body showed that the child had struck in her descent on several of the braces of the bridge and received severe bruises. It is probable that Rosa was knocked senseless and never knew what hurt her.

The plank which caused the death of Rosa also slipped down with the body and was found floating on the slough. As soon as the body was taken from the water it was conveyed to the home of the grief stricken parents. The child was 8½ years old and a very bright, interesting child.

MILITARY NOTES.

EDWARD MILLS AND GEORGE BENTON

A Story for Which You Can Find an Illustration Almost Anywhere

The new Atlantic contains the tale of Edward Mills and George Benton by Mark Twain which is as clever a satire on the sentimentality over crime as that sort of gush has ever received Edward Mills m ndell from boyhood George Benton never did Edward prospered George always had to be helped They had the same adopted parents, who left all the property to George, because Edward could take care of himself So it went in all things, even the girl that Edward was engaged to dropped him, as it was her duty to save George Hard times threw Edward out of regular work and he relapsed to common labor for a while but George became a flourishing drunkard We give the last part of the story leaving it to the readers of the Atlantic to get the full enjoyment of the whole

A grand temperance revival was got up, and after some rousing speeches had been made, the chairman said impressively "We are now about to call for signers and I think there is a spectacle in store for you which not many in this house will be able to view with dry eyes There was an eloquent pause, and then George Benton, escorted by a red sashed detachment of the Ladies of the Refuge stepped forward upon the platform and signed the pledge The air was rent with applause and everybody cried for joy Everybody wrung the hand of the new convert when the meeting was over his salary was enlarged next day, he was the talk of the town, and its hero An account of it was published

George Benton fell, regularly every three months, but was faithfully rescued and wrought with every time, and good situations were found for him Finally, he was taken around the country lecturing as a reformed drunkard, and he had great houses and did an immense amount of good

He was so popular at home and so treated during his sober intervals, that he was enabled to use the name of a principal citizen and get a large sum of money at the bank A mighty pressure was brought to bear to save him from the consequences of his forgery and it was partially successful—he was sent up for only two years. When at the end of a year the useless efforts of the benevolent were crowned with success, and he emerged from the penitentiary with a pardon in his pocket the Prisoner's Friend Society met him at the door with a situation and a comfortable salary, and all the other benevolent people came forward and gave him advice, encouragement and help Edward Mills had once applied to the Prisoner's Friend Society for a situation, when in dire need, but the question, "Have you been a prisoner?" made short work of his case

While all these things were going on, Edward Mills had been quietly making head against adversity He was still poor but was in receipt of a steady and sufficient salary, as the respected and trusted cashier of a bank George Benton never came near him, and was never heard to inquire about him George got to indulging in long absences from the town there were ill reports about him, but nothing definite

One winter's night some masked burglars forced their way into the bank, and found Edward Mills there alone They commanded him to reveal the "combination," so they could get into the safe He refused They threatened his life. He said his employers trusted him, and he could not be a traitor to that trust He could die, if he must, but while he lived he would be faithful, he would not yield up the "combination" The burglars killed him

The detectives hunted down the criminals; the chief one proved to be George Benton. A wide sympathy was felt for the widow and orphans of the dead man, and all the newspapers in the land begged that all the banks in the land would testify their appreciation of the fidelity and heroism of the murdered cashier by coming forward with a generous contribution of money in aid of his family, now bereft of support. The result was a mass of solid cash, amounting to upwards of $500—an average of nearly three-eighths of a cent for each bank in the union The cashier's own bank testified its gratitude by endeavoring to show (but humiliatingly failed in it) that the peerless servant's seconds were not spotless, and that he had knocked his own brains out with a bludgeon to escape detection and punishment

George Benton was arraigned for trial Then everybody seemed to forget the widow and orphans in their solicitude for poor George. Everything that money and influence could do was done to save him but it all failed he was sentenced to death Straightway the governor was besieged with petitions for commutation or pardon, they were brought by tearful young girls, by sorrowful old-maids, by deputations of pathetic widows, by shoals of impressive orphans. But no, the governor—for once—would not yield.

Now, George Benton experienced religion The glad news flew all around From that time forth his cell was always full of girls and women and fresh flowers; all the day long there was prayer, and hymn-singing, and thanksgivings, and homilies, and tears, with never an interruption, except an occasional five-minute intermission for refreshments.

This sort of thing continued up to the very gallows, and George Benton went proudly home in the black cap, before a waiting audience of the sweetest and best that the region could produce. His grave had fresh flowers on it every day, for a while, and the head stone bore these words, under a hand pointing aloft "He has fought the good fight."

The brave cashier's head stone has this inscription "Be pure, honest, sober, industrious, considerate, and you will never—

Nobody knows who gave the order to leave it that way, but it was so given.

The cashier's family are in stringent circumstances now, it is said, but no matter; a lot of appreciative people, who are not writing that an act so brave and true as his should go unrewarded, have collected $42,000—and built a memorial church with it.

BARBAROUS TREATMENT OF NEGROES.

(From the Christian Statesman, Philadelphia)

Notwithstanding the repeated denials by southern men of the existence of any terrorism or oppression in the south, it seems impossible, in the face of accumulated non-partisan testimony, to doubt that there is one species of slavery still maintained there which as no less terrible than the worst forms of the old time bondage. We refer to the convict or chain-gang system which is in force in some of the states. Southern justice has always borne with especial severity upon the negro. Long terms for slight offenses, on scanty proof, suffice to keep the mass of the convicts full They are let out by the state to contractors to work on railroads and other public works. Formerly the master had a pecuniary interest in his slave which was some restraint upon sheer wantonness of brutality or neglect. But neither the state nor the contractor has any interest in the life of the unhappy victims who work out their long sentences under the muskets of their guard And in most instances, more is not to be remembered or interfered effectually in his behalf when his sentence expires, if he lives so long. The cruelty of their treatment is said to be almost incredible except by eye-witnesses Their fare and their quarters are of the meanest and scantiest character Disease last summer made terrible havoc among them The armed guards, usually white convicts, shoot them at their own discretion on the first sign of insubordination, and no account is exacted The "dead nigger" is buried by the side of the road where the gang is at work, and nobody knows or remembers the fact. The New York Tribune says: "If anybody doubts this to be the condition of affairs, let him go through the section of country in Georgia or the Carolinas worked by these men. They crowd about the cars, begging for food with wild eyes and hunger-bitten faces, and run to buy bread with the pennies thrown to them, eating it like famished dogs. Their keepers permit them to beg as it lessens the cost of keeping them alive A month ago two men, a white and a negro, were sentenced in North Carolina for the same offense, the white being the ring leader and more guilty of the two He was immediately appointed overseer, and set whip in hand to guard his comrade with the other. The black, being a fellow of some shrewdness and education, sent in a protest against the injustice, and the overseer on hearing of it shot him dead The overseer's ill holes his place unharmed."

The south complains bitterly because such statements are published and believed in the north. Unhappily, the whole history of slavery, its cruelties, the unspeakable sorrows of its victims, its abuse of the master as well as the slave, the unquestionable testimony of the slave code, the violent measures to which its upholders were hesitated to resort, establish a strong presumption in favor of their truth There are many exceptions, we know, on both sides, who do not militate falsehood But there is a great body of northern men who have only one desire to get at the truth Many of them take no part in the discussion Nearly all minds of this class [illegible] that the blacks of the south are [illegible] their just rights and are [illegible] treated and oppressed Are [illegible] belief? Our columns are [illegible] writer who can prove the [illegible] not add he will be more

COMMENTS ON HANCOCK'S LETTER.

(From the Chicago Times Ind.)

When Gen Hancock says The bayonet is not a fit instrument for collecting the votes of freemen,' he is only indulging himself in the use of a bold metaphor Nobody proposes to collect ballots on a bayonet but it is a fair question though not since 1877 a practical one whether the bayonet is not a proper thing to employ when shotguns and revolvers and bowie knives keep freemen from holding political meetings and from voting as they please On the civil service reform he says what every one from George William Curtis to Mr Flannagan of Texas will assent to, that only good men should be appointed to office but the only way to accomplish this indicated in the letter is the select on of good men to the elective offices by the people After reminding the public that the war has been over fifteen years and sentiments of friendship and not of animosity should be cultivated among our citizens he disposes of the financial subject in the following brief remark A sedulous and scrupulous care of the public credit, together with a wise and economical management of our government expenditures, should be maintained Certainly no one will learn from that what sort of financial legislation Gen Hancock would approve, and what he would veto for even greenbackers disclaim any intention of damaging public credits The general concludes his letter with the encouraging assurance that if he is elected he will see that the laws be faithfully and equally executed in all parts of the country alike but no even this gives any idea of what sort of legislation is proposed for congress to expect the president to enforce

(From the Chicago Inter Ocean.)

Carry out General Hancock's expressed views and his defeat is inevitable Yet he is said to be tolerably confident of success Why is he? Because and the conclusion is irresistible he knows that the principles which he so warmly defends are to be violated, ridiculed outraged by those who give him countenance and support This is not a pleasant feature to contemplate but in view which cannot be overlooked If Gen Hancock means what he says and is ready to abide by it, he is no longer a factor in the presidential contest. If he does not mean it he is as imbecile and untrustworthy as the shameless party that does the work of fraud and violence by which he hopes to profit

(From the Chicago Tribune.)

Bravely would be commendable were there not a painful consciousness on the part both of the readers and the writer that the resort to glittering generalities is caused by Gen Hancock's almost total want of acquaintance with the political questions now at issue before the country The letter of Gen Hancock's is not candid it is evasive and obscure Under a pretense of being an outspoken and frank declaration of principles, no principles are avowed, but between the lines may be discovered the odor if not the form of the most rotten feast of all the devices of disunion strife and civil war, the demon of state secession

(From the San Francisco Chronicle.)

The letter reads like one of the platitudes which used to issue from old Bourbon stickers for the constitution as it was before the late unpleasantness with the single difference that it promises to respect the last three amendments But this promise is so hedged about and frittered away by divisions upon the rights of the states, and insidious not to say untruthful, remarks upon the interference of bayonets with the ballot box, that it may be taken to mean no more, coming from Hancock s pen than if it came from the lips of Jefferson Davis or Robert Toombs We have never yet heard of a democratic presidential candidate for the presidency, who failed to make loyal professions of love for the union and the constitution But they always profess with the convenient mental reservation that it is the union and constitution as they understand them, rather than as the laws of congress enacted by the majority enforce them Hancock's promises must be accepted as with the intent for this reservation, and nothing more For as surely as the water of a river cannot rise higher than its source the democratic candidate will not be able, even if he should be willing to place himself and his administration on a higher plane of political morals than his party occupies We all know the altitude of that ancient mess. It held to human slavery and only held to state rights as a means of upholding, extending and perpetuating slavery It has forgot nothing of its hateful history, and is the same yesterday to day and ever. On the whole Hancock s letter of acceptance may be pronounced, without malice or prejudice, one of imbecility and worn-out platitudes

The day has been marked by no special transactions of unusual importance but there has been a general activity in both financial and trade matters The movements of freights to the interior both eastern and southern continue while shipments to Sound ports are of about average volume

In the produce markets the amount of trade is about the average for this time of the year, and though prices are not high there is a tolerably active inquiry for staple products, The new wheat coming to hand has hardly been in sufficient quantity to indicate the general character of the crop, but the quality as shown so far by samples is excellent The yield will be quite up to former reports.

The question of a tonnage supply for the spring grain of this coast is one now attracting a good deal of attention. California, it is claimed, will produce 600 million tons, and Oregon 200 000 tons This indicates a surplus of nearly 3,000 000 tons which will require 500 large vessels The total tonnage now in sight is estimated at less than 350 000 tons Prices for charter are already manifesting an upward tendency in San Francisco and shipowners are firm A charter at that port is reported to day at 45s for cork equivalent to 55 from Java

Advices from abroad show a firm feeling in some quarters, but heavy arrivals off coast have slightly checked the demand in Liverpool and London In San Francisco the volume of trade in the new crop is small owing to difference of view of buyers and holders. Our market is very quiet, the highest offers being $1 40 with but few willing to sell at that figure.

Wool is in good demand with lighter receipts and prices unchanged. Flour mill feed and hay are in fair supply at the quotations last given Dairy products, provisions and eggs firm

Catarrhal

POISON

Wei De Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh, explains the following important facts

That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous infection, at first local and easily constitutional.

That breathing the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies

That impurities in the nostrils are necessarily swallowed in the stomach and inhaled into the lungs thus poisoning the Digestive Respiratory and Genito urinary organs

4. That Catarrhal virus follows the mucous membrane and causes Deafness Dyspepsia Chronic Diarrhœa Bronchitis Leucorrhœa and Consumption

5. That Smokes, Douches Inhalations and Insoluble Snuffs cannot possibly remove infection inflammation from the organs named

6. That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an inoculative affinity for and the quality of being absorbed by the purulent mucous wherever located.

Based upon these plain theories Dr. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible It not only relieves, it cures Catarrh at any stage Home testimony

EAST PORTLAND ROUTES.—Henry Warren has charge of the routes of THE OREGONIAN in East Portland, and will make all collections for subscriptions there

E. A. BROWN ACQUITTED.—The case of E. A. Brown charged with forgery was tried yesterday in the state circuit court before Judge Stott and a jury and resulted in the acquittal of Brown without the formality of a ballot. It seems to have been a case of persecution. Brown is an honest hard working contractor and builder who came to Portland two years ago. Last spring he was married to Mrs. Eliza Ladd daughter of Joseph Knott. The latter became surety in May last on a bond given by Brown to Wm Beck for build a house. Shortly afterwards a suit was commenced by Mrs Brown against her father to recover her share of his estate. It is said he has sought revenge by charging her husband with forging his (Knott's) name to the bond referred to above. The prompt verdict of acquittal shows Brown to have been innocent, and indicates that his indictment was found only for persecution

NOTABLE PICTURES.—Mr William Bradford, the Arctic explorer, a noted painter, who has of late been sketching a picture of Mount Rainier has been here for two weeks past, is now going up the Columbia river to make a sketch for a picture of Jumbo Flood. This last picture is to be painted for Mr. Villard. Several pictures like the work of Mr. Bradford's are now on exhibition in the window of Mr. [illegible] store on Fort street, where they have attracted much attention. They are [illegible] pictures, showing Yosemite valley, and two of the [illegible] painted for the collection of the late Governor [illegible] of New Westminster. Mr. Bradford is a painter who has [illegible] a European and American reputation, and the Mount Hood which he will produce for Villard will undoubtedly be a work which will spread the fame of Oregon's [illegible] of our snow peaks and the majestic [illegible] portraits and one figure pieces by [illegible] Westminster, at present of San Francisco are attracting a great deal of attention in with the pictures of Mr Bradford. Connoisseurs pronounce these pictures the most striking pictures ever seen in Oregon

A FEARFUL FALL.—M. Seward, a carpenter employed on the Mechanics' Pavilion, fell yesterday afternoon. He was employed by the contractor in carrying rafters into the building, when the plank upon which he was walking gave way, hurling him to the floor, a distance of 16 feet. He was knocked senseless and lay upon the floor, the blood flowing from a wound over the eye when a physician reached his side. A messenger was dispatched and returned in a few minutes. Upon examination it was found that his left knee cap on the right leg was broken, the right eye injured and a severe cut received in the right eye. He was made as comfortable as possible until a hack arrived and conveyed him to St. Vincents hospital for treatment. The unfortunate man and has a wife and family in the American Exchange.

RESIGNATION AND APPOINTMENT.—Within the past few days several changes have taken place among the teachers of the Central school. Mrs Sammons, late of Olds, has tendered her resignation. Miss Alice Clawson has been promoted from 4th to the 3d grade. Miss [illegible] has been appointed to take the 4th grade. Mrs A. C. Tabbie, who has resigned and Miss Robertson has been appointed to fill the vacancy. Miss [illegible] employed last year as first assistant, and Miss Annie Shelley has been appointed as supernumerary to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Miss Robinson.

FORGERS ARRESTED.—Yesterday [illegible] for $40 purporting to have been drawn by Jackson & Myers on W Jackson & Co's bank of this city, was presented that firm through the Bank of British Columbia and refused, it being evident that the signing forgery, as there was no such firm's signatures in the book of [illegible] printed ones of the firm and [illegible] was torn from the book in the office of Geo T Myers at the canning establishment on Sauvie's island. It passed into the hands of the [illegible] branch of L. K. G. Smith & Co's store, and will probably be the loser. There are other forgeries out on the same bank and the same party.

THE THIRD TRIAL.—The case of [illegible] Allen accused of robbery, was called [illegible] again in the circuit court yesterday morning. This case has been twice tried [illegible] court, the jury on each trial having [illegible] and been discharged without [illegible] verdict. At 3 o'clock the regular panel of [illegible] jurors was exhausted, three jurors only having been secured. The balance of the [illegible] secured from a special venire. At 4 o'clock the jury was sworn, and after the judge had cautioned them not to converse with anyone on the case, the court adjourned until this morning.

RELIGIOUS.—The Oregon Churchman says: Rev Dr Nevins has recently made a visit to the churches of his former mission in the Rogue River and Powder river villages, which stirred the death of Rev Mr Hayes have been without pastoral care. He reports that though not in a flourishing condition, holding its own. This call of [illegible] in three of these churches [illegible] strength is already felt in the returns from our churches, Good Shepherd hall, and the grammar school of St. Paul's, Walla Walla.

P. O. DIRECTORY.—Mr W. P. Leonard, who is agent for L. M. McKinney & Co's Pacific coast directory, has placed on our table a copy of this invaluable work, which has just been issued. It was written for Mr. Lindsay by a prominent lawyer of Salt Lake City and on its first production there, received from the press and public most favorable comment

MAPLE LEAF ROWING ASSOCIATION.

Reorganization of that Body of Oarsmen last Night.

A number of amateur oarsmen who have shown some skill in practice this summer, but who do not hold a membership in either of the boating clubs, met last night for that purpose, and reorganized the Maple Leaf Rowing Association. They elected the following officers

President, W H Creighton
First vice president, P J Bett-
Second vice president, James J Goggie
Secretary and treasurer, P J Rentgen
Captain, C H Allen

They start out with a goodly membership and plenty of pluck and muscle. The club intends to enter a crew for the Grant cup and may make it warm for the crews of the Willamettes and I. P. R. A. At any rate, a race between crews of three clubs will be surrounded with one-third more interest than last year's contest, and will lend additional pleasure to spectators.

A FATAL PLUNGE.

Little Rose Rankin Falls through Fourth Street Bridge in East Portland and Finds a Watery Grave.

A most shocking accident occurred yesterday forenoon about 10 o'clock at the Fourth street bridge in East Portland, resulting in the death, by drowning, of little Rose Rank in a daughter of Mr. Guy Rankin. The circumstances of the very sad affair are substantially as follows. Mrs Rankin who resides in Holladay's addition mother of the little victim, sent the child to the center of the city to get some milk, giving her a small tin pail. To reach East Portland proper the child had to cross the Fourth street bridge which spans the slough. Rose was accompanied by a little daughter of Mr. Ferguson.

Some time ago the common council of East Portland ordered some repairs to be made in the bridge as it was declared unsafe for travel. The necessary repairs were made and the bridge thrown open to travel. On each side of the bridge is a sidewalk 8 x feet in width for the use of pedestrians. This walkway rests on three stringers. It seems that one of the planks had worked loose or [illegible] inches, so that the outer end did not rest on the stringer. As the plank was not nailed down securely when Rose stepped on the end it flew up and let her slight body slip through. From the bridge to the water the distance is about 45 feet. The water in the slough is about 10 feet deep. Down through the hole at aperture the child slipped and took a plunge into the water below. Her little companion, who witnessed the thrilling incident, was terrified and ran to the nearest house and gave the alarm.

Several persons rushed to the scene to rescue the child but she had disappeared from sight. Grappling hooks were procured and in the course of half an hour the lifeless body of Rose was hauled out. An examination of the body showed that the child had struck on her descent on several of the braces of the bridge and received severe bruises. It is probable that Rose was knocked senseless and never knew what hurt her.

The plank which caused the death of Rose, also slipped down with the body and was found floating on the slough. As soon as the body was taken from the water it was conveyed to the home of the grief stricken parents. The child was 4½ years old and a very bright, interesting child.

PETITIONING EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY

Application for Commutation of Death Sentence in the Case of Henry Winzingerode--Petition, Remonstrance and Affidavits--Matter taken Under Advisement.

Yesterday forenoon the argument on the application for commutation of the death sentence in the case of young Henry Winzingerode, who is sentenced to be hanged to-morrow for the murder of Jacob Swanger last January, came on for hearing before his excellency Governor Thayer, at his office in this city. The state was represented by M. F. Mulkey, deputy district attorney, while J. H. Woodward and E. Mendenhall appeared for the prisoner. The application for commutation was based on the following petition, which had been circulated and signed by over 200 prominent and very respectable citizens, both of this and Washington county:

PORTLAND, Oregon.

To W. W. Thayer, Governor of Oregon. DEAR SIR—On the 10th day of June, 1880, the circuit court for Washington county, Oregon, pronounced judgment against the defendant in the case of the State of Oregon vs. Harry Winzingerode, in which the accused was charged with and convicted of the killing of one Jacob Swanger, sentencing him to be hung on the 6th day of August, 1880, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 2 P. M. We have known of the defendant for many years and believe that the condition of his mind has long been such as to have rendered his acts unconsciously done, and his person unamenable to punishment must be an inevitable conclusion. The sentence is undoubtedly too severe. At most it should not exceed imprisonment for life. Taking the defense, the appearance of the defendant, v r melancholy, stupid, seemingly unconscious as to his surroundings, and realizing his situation, we have a case that commends itself in your most favorable consideration. Upon these reasons, and many more could be added and more specifically set forth, we earnestly ask that said sentence be commuted to imprisonment for life.

Petition of Jurors.

The following petition, signed by seven of the jurors before whom the trial was held, and by whom the defendant was convicted, was presented to the consideration of the governor:

WASHINGTON COUNTY, Or.

To H. W. Thayer, Governor of the State of Oregon: DEAR SIR—On June 10, 1880, the circuit court for Washington county pronounced judgment against the defendant in the case of the State of Oregon vs. Harry Winzingerode, in which the accused was convicted of the killing of one Jacob Swanger sentencing him to be hung on August 6, 1880 between the hours of 10 A. M. and 2 P.M. We were jurors on the trial of said case, and now rightfully and earnestly recommend and petition that said sentence be commuted to imprisonment. Respectfully,

W. L. CURTIS,
JAMES SHEPHERD,
F. E. STRATTON,
J. WHITMORE,
ANDREW JACK,
THOMAS WHEELER,
J. S. MILLER.

From Judge Bellinger.

Gov. Thayer has received the following letter from Judge C. B. Bellinger, in relation to the commutation of the sentence:

PORTLAND, Aug. 2, 1880.

To His Excellency, W. W. Thayer, Governor of the State of Oregon: The undersigned residents and inhabitants of Washington county, Oregon, would respectfully represent that we fully believe that the murder of Jacob Swanger by Henry Winzingerode, in Washington county Oregon, in January 1880, was a deliberately planned and cruelly executed murder for money; that he had a fair, impartial trial; and we sincerely believe that a first execution of the law upon him is necessary for the protection of the innocent. We respectfully ask that his sentence be not commuted or interfered with.

The remonstrance is signed by over 400 citizens of Washington county.

Affidavits.

In reference to the sanity of young Winzingerode, Dr. C. C. Strong has made the following affidavit:

My knowledge of Henry Winzingerode is derived partly from observation and partly from information through a history of his case while I obtained from his friends when I had him under treatment. I knew him personally for more than two years and had him for some time under my care. His mental capacity is much below the ordinary standard and I think he was born so. The habit of private vice, which he acquired very early, had debased and almost if not quite destroyed what little mental capacity he was born with. He appeared to be entirely destitute of moral sense or a capacity to distinguish between right and wrong. For instance: may have taught him to avoid some acts as an animal is educated to do, and not to do certain things. But I do not think that he was responsible for his acts as a moral agent.

Dr. Jas. T. Gilselin testifies in his affidavit that he knows from personal examination that young Wintzingerod is very weak minded from private vice and that his mental condition may be characterized as dementia or moral insanity.

Dr. J. A. Chapman and Dr. Schumacher have both made similar affidavits.

The case was argued pro and con at some length by counsel, and Chas. V. Wintzingerode, the father of the young man, allowed to make a statement of the case. Gov. Thayer stated that he would consider the case carefully until 10 o'clock, when he would give a decision.

According to the sentence, young Winzingerode will be hanged to-morrow unless Gov. Thayer should interfere. In the event that the governor refuses to commute the sentence a petition will be filed asking for a respite until the 20th of August, in order to enable counsel to perfect an appeal to the supreme court.

The signs of activity in business circles are perceptibly increasing; there is a better demand for funds, and though borrowers are not numerous the banks are doing more than the usual amount of business at this season of the year. Rates of interest on loans and the discount on commercial paper, though not any exacting, are steady owing to the expected increase in the demand when the surplus grain crop begins to come forward.

A special to THE OREGONIAN from SAN FRANCISCO to-day says:

The local bankers report a little better demand for money owing to borrowers of wheat. Bankers are nothing for this purpose at 7@8 per cent.

General trade in this market has but seldom shown more life in the latter part of July and the first part of August than this year, though the aggregate volume of transactions may perhaps have been proportionately as great. There is a fair amount of orders from merchants in the interior of the state and in Washington territory for goods to fill up their stocks, and the general report is that the outlook for the fall trade is good.

The prices paid for wool have been better than usual, and though the backwardness of the spring made the movement of the clip late in beginning, it has come forward very rapidly since the opening of the season, and the bulk has now passed out of first hands. Growers in some instances have stored at shipping points to await higher prices or lower freights, but the chances for either now seem to be uncertain. There is a very considerable quantity so held in this city.

Crop reports continue to be flattering to a heavy yield of good quality of wheat in this state. While advices from Europe do not change the aspects of the market materially, the reports from the Mississippi valley states, producing wheat largely, are more promising; in fact as the harvest has progressed the yield has been so much better than was anticipated in the spring and early summer, that shares in the great railway lines which transport the most of the surplus from grain fields of the Northern Mississippi valley have materially advanced in consequence of the prospect of an immense increase in the grain carrying trade. Buyers in San Francisco appear to be doing more business and receipts at that point are increasing, with a limited disposition to sell at current rates. In our own market the quotations are nominal at $1 85@1 90 per cental. Flour is in fair supply at $3 75@5 per bbl for standard brands and the usual reduction on inferior grades. Oatsfirm at 40c per bushel for ordinary to 45c for choice. Mill feed, hay, etc., in good supply at last quoted prices. Provisions are in larger receipt with a good demand. Potatoes are plentiful and tendeby of prices downward. Eggs and choice dairy products firm, the former at 20c per dozen.

Boston Wool Market.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

BOSTON, Aug. 4—Market unchanged; demand steady from manufacturers and prices well sustained. There was a fair business doing in California at 27@37 for spring; choice northern spring is very desirable, and held mostly at 36@40c.

Eggs—Firm at full prices; supplies of choice are light.

CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES

such as SPERMATORRHŒA or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two-thirds of all Dr. Clarke's cases spring, either directly or indirectly, from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet the subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the ordinary physician in time, from a sense of modesty, and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corroded, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

Lost manhood perfectly restored.

Catarrh, Bronchitis, Throat Diseases, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaints and all Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Stomach and Blood, he can cure without fail.

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected, with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled; his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. MCLANE and FLEMING BROS., on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.
